Prestaigne Charter announces appointment of General Manager for its Asia-Pacific operation

Prestaigne Charter is pleased to announce the appointment of Danny Duijs as General Manager for Prestaigne Charter's Asia-Pacific operation.

Mr Duijs comes to Prestaigne Charter from Eurovision – (part of the European Broadcasting Union) where, since 2008, he held the position of Product Development Manager, responsible for developing new products and content distribution for the Asia-Pacific area.

From 1999 until 2008, Mr Duijs held the position of Senior Producer and developed multiple Outside Broadcast solutions for Asian and European Broadcasters at major events such as the World Cup 2006 in Germany, the UNFCC Climate Change in Bali as well as Major News events such as the World Youth Day in Sydney Australia.

Mike Ransome, Chief Executive Officer, Prestaigne Charter is delighted with the appointment and looks forward to the talent and vision that Mr Duijs brings with him: "I am thrilled that Danny has agreed to join Prestaigne Charter's Singapore operation in the role of General Manager. Danny brings an enthusiasm for the Asia-Pacific broadcast market and his experience in this region will certainly complement our team in the Singapore office. As always, Prestaigne Charter's policy is to deliver quality broadcast solutions and Danny's position as General Manager will substantiate our aim in providing the service our clients have come to know us for."

Mr Duijs joins Prestaigne Charter on Monday 1st February 2010. For further information regarding Prestaigne Charter Singapore and the services they provide, please contact Danny on the number below. Alternatively, please email him on: dannyd@prestaignecharter.com.
